We're taking our Energy Careers Panel to the University of Lancaster.

If you're thinking about a career in energy and want to know more about working in the energy sector head to the University of Lancaster on the 12th March.

Don't miss the chance to hear from speakers from backgrounds such as Energy and Water Efficiency Project Management, Environmental Consulting, Energy Management and Energy Engineering.

Utilise the chance to network with current professionals while picking up some great tips.

Have some specific questions you want answering? If so, bring these with you on the day or email Joe at ypnnwnw@energyinst.org
