

Celebrate energy excellence

9 November, 18.30 – 23.30
 Sheraton Grand Park Lane Hotel, London

The EI Awards recognise the most outstanding achievements across all sectors of the energy industry. The winners of the 2017 competition will be announced at this prestigious black-tie ceremony and dinner.

The EI Awards dinner is an important fixture in the industry's social calendar. It brings together high-profile, influential guests from across the globe to network, celebrate, entertain, and be inspired by the industry's successes.

Join us for an evening of celebration, entertainment, and fine-dining. Celebrate with your colleagues, entertain your most important clients and make new industry connections.

We are delighted to welcome as our guest speaker at this year's event:

Matt Dawson MBE, former England rugby player turned businessman

Matt Dawson MBE will host the dinner and share anecdotes from his time on the rugby pitch as one of England's most capped players of all time.

Since his retirement from sport Matt has moved into business, working with The Instant Group and Sodexo, and will talk at the dinner about how he applies lessons from the pitch and dressing room to his commercial work to engage staff and create a leadership culture.
